PACE GLOBAL ANNOUNCES NEW VICE PRESIDENT

FAIRFAX, VA — November 10, 2011 – Pace Global Energy Services has named Sam Elia as Vice President in its consulting practice. Mr. Elia, who will be located in Pace Global's Fairfax office, has over 28 years of experience in the energy industry. His expertise includes developing and implementing market, credit, operational, and financial risk practices to measure, manage, and report top-tier risks at the enterprise level.

Jim Diemer, Managing Director & Executive Vice President of Pace Global and head of the Houston office, commented "We are excited to have Sam join Pace Global as we are seeing an increase in demand for our Enterprise Risk Management service offering from our launch of NorthSTAR™ earlier this year. His experience will bring valuable insights to our "C" level clients as we help them develop strategies and implement solutions which reflect a comprehensive risk view in the ever-changing global energy and carbon markets."

Mr. Elia previously held senior management positions at Black & Veatch, Deloitte and Touche, BP Corporation, and TXU Corporation. His past project work includes enterprise-wide risk management, futures and options trading, operational risk management, strategic planning, and quantitative analytics.

In his new role at Pace Global, Mr. Elia will be working with energy and utility clients worldwide on enterprise risk management program development and strategy.
